

Climate South East

UK Climate Change Risk Assessment and the Future of Adaptation Delivery
November 10, 2011

7th Floor, Hercules House, Hercules Road, Lambeth, London, SE1 7DU (Map)

AGENDA

10:00	Arrival, coffee, tea
10:20	Welcome and Introductions	Justin Goodwin (Climate SE)
10:30	Environment Agency: The Enhanced Adaptation Role and work with Climate Change Partnerships	Tim Reeder (Environment Agency)
11:15	UK Climate Change Risk assessment: Background, initial South East findings, messages National Adaptation Programme: discussion with questions for stakeholders about development of the NAP	Jonathan Capstick (Defra ACC), all
12:15	Lunch
12:45	Climate South East: How best to support adaptation subnationally	CSE
1:30	A CC Vulnerability Assessment for Biodiversity: How to consider the natural environment in decision-making	Sarah Taylor (Natural England)
2:15	Break
2:30	Community Resilience to Extreme Weather: Making adaptation real for small businesses and communities	Fuad Ali (Greenwich University, CREW)
3:15	Visualizing Sustainability: a tool for making sense of the deluge of data	Steve Magenis (Royal Haskoning)
4:00	Next steps	CSE
4:15	Close	